ROSENS ENTERTAIN AT DINNER PARTY

The Swiss Charge d'Affaires Guest of Honor at Russian Embassy.

THEATER PARTY AT CHASE'S

Entire Staff Goes to New York Tomorrow to Attend Concert.

The Russian Ambassador and Baroness Rosen entertained at dinner in the embassy last night in honor of Mr. de Furey, the charge d'affaires for Switzerland. Their guests were the Baroness Elizabeth Rosen, Mr. Kroupensky, and Prince Koudacheff, of the embassy staff.

After the dinner the party occupied a box at Chase's to see Mrs. Langtry. Thursday morning the entire staff of the embassy will leave Washington for New York to be present at the concert of the Russian Symphony Orchestra in Carnegie Hall. They will return to Washington Saturday.

The Minister from Norway and Mme. Hauge, who are still in Paris, are expected in Washington about the middle of December, when they expect to take possession of their new home in Massachusetts avenue near Twenty-first street, if it is completed by that time.

Miss Erma Shaw, younger daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Shaw, will be presented to society at a tea on December 10 in the reception rooms of the Arlington Hotel, where the family will make their home this winter. Miss Shaw is a girl of the studious type and has recently returned from a year's absence in Paris continuing her studies, with her sister, Miss Edith Shaw, who was a debutante of three years ago. She did not, however, have a formal presentation to the circle in Washington with which her parents are identified, choosing the more informal and unpretentious style of just "coming out."

Miss Erma Shaw was a pupil for several seasons at the Woman's College in Baltimore before her trip to Paris. This was not her first trip abroad, either, for she had spent some time previously with her mother and sister, traveling over all the most interesting points on the other side.

The luncheon at the Rifles' armory yesterday and today for the benefit of the Bell Home netted a handsome sum to that charity. The affair was under the co-operation of all the Episcopal churches in town, and the united efforts of the Daughters of the King furnished an elaborate menu, including turkey and cranberry sauce, for the small sum of 25 cents. In spite of the crush during the hours of each day everybody was satisfied and happy after the manner of good feeders, and the ladies felt gratified with the result, from a financial standpoint.

These luncheons are an annual feast of good things for the cause, and each year the treasury of the institution is replenished for the future needs of the home, through the untiring devotion of the women composing the organization.

Mrs. H. B. F. Macfarland has recently returned from a visit to her country place, near Catlet, Fauquier county, Va.

Mrs. Frank J. Moses sailed today for Cuba, to join her husband, Lieut. Col. F. J. Moses, now in command of the United States Marines in Havana.

King, of Washington, with their two little sons, George King and Edwin King, have gone to Greenville for the occasion.

Mrs. Sallie V. Harris Bride This Afternoon

Wedding of Brilliant Woman Journalist to Theodore J. Pickett, Popular Clubman and Lawyer of Washington.

A pretty wedding of this afternoon will be that of Mrs. Sallie Vawter Harris to Theodore J. Pickett, son of the late Col. John T. Pickett, of Confederate fame. The ceremony will be performed at 4 o'clock in the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Judge and Mrs. William A. Milliken, at 2017 Massachusetts avenue, by the Rev. F. D. Power, pastor of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church. Only relatives will be present, owing to the mourning of the bride for her mother. There will be no attendants.

The decorations of the house will consist of tall palms and yellow and white chrysanthemums. The bride will wear a gown of plain white tailored white broadcloth and a large black hat with plumes. She will be given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Judge and Mrs. Milliken, and after an informal repast the bride and bridegroom will leave for a short trip. They will be at home after December 1 at 1943 Biltmore street.

This wedding is a culmination of an interesting romance, the bride and bridegroom have known each other since they were children and lived in adjoining places in Kentucky as they grew up.

She has been attached to the Washington bureau of the Chicago Tribune, New York Tribune, and Philadelphia Press, and for several years had been on the staff of the Washington Times. Colonel Pickett accompanied Lopez to Cuba and commanded the battle of Cardenas. Mr. Pickett's grandfather was the late Col. James C. Pickett, who was an officer of the regular army during the war of 1812, was Judge Advocate of the Army, and while serving as secretary of state for Kentucky, married Miss Desha, the daughter of the then governor of Kentucky. Lee, of Brookline, Mass., where they will spend Thanksgiving, as has been Mrs. Longworth's custom ever since she was a small child. One of the most interesting meetings in the history of the Washington Section of the Council of Jewish Women was held last evening in the vestry rooms of the Eighth Street Temple, when the Rev. TRIUMPHS TO COME ON FARM.

The farm is the best security we have for our social well being and whatever promotes interest there, whatever raises it in intelligence and scientific spirit is one of the most comforting influences of our civilization. And so to have our young men imbued with the true agricultural spirit, to turn away from the advent of the commercial life and the allurements of mere money making to the simple, productive, independent life on the farm is one of the richest promises in our educational system. For there is where it belongs—to the expanding mind force of the nation. The answer of the old artist that he mixed his paint with brains is akin to the experience in the farming of the future, which will mix brains with the soil—Columbus, Ohio, Journal.
